1 from a producer of some sort.

2 Q. (By Mr. Clark) And do you think this is
3 the type of document that Hormel should have in its
4 possession?

5 MR. BYLUND: Objection to form,
6 foundation.

7 THE WITNESS: Again, there's market intel
8 every day that we're trying to utilize to reduce
9 our hog costs, what the harvest levels and what
10 the harvest budgets are. You know, again, it's 11 a lot of third-party information, a lot of 12 broker information. There's information out
13 there that we utilize -- media information,
14 MeatFYI, Meetingplace, you name it to -- to put
15 all that information together and try to make
16 the best decisions to reduce our hog cost.

17 Q. (By Mr. Clark) Do you recall any of your
18 colleagues at Hormel around this time commenting that
19 Hormel shouldn't have Tyson's kill schedule here?

20 A. Again, then, where the information came
21 from is came from a producer or a broker from that
22 standpoint.

23 Q. So would it surprise you to know others at 24 Hormel commented that Hormel should not have this 25 document?

1 MR. BYLUND: Objection to form.

2 THE WITNESS: No.

3 Q. (By Mr. Clark) Why would it not surprise
4 you?

5 A. Well, it's certainly not normal.

6 Q. Do you have any reason to doubt you sent
7 or received this e-mail -- the e-mails reflected on
8 the face of Exhibit 13?

9 A. No.

10 Q. We can set Exhibit 13 aside.

11 Have you ever heard of the pig mafia?

12 A. I mean, I've heard that term; but --
13 that's -- that's -- I don't know. I don't know
14 necessarily what it means.

15 Q. Does it have any meaning to you at all?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Have you ever heard of the Minnesota Pig
18 Mafia?

19 A. No.

20 MR. CLARK: Why don't you pull up Tab O,
21 as in Oreo. We'll mark that Exhibit 14. Then
22 we'll take a break after this one.

23 THE WITNESS: Did you use in glory.

24 Did you say O or G?

25 Q. (By Mr. Clark) O as in Oreo.
